ISLAND LODGE

Private Paradise | Sweden

Think of a European city where you can camp in remote, pristine wilderness and still be just 40 minutes by boat from the nearest Prada shop. Stumped? Say hallå to Island Lodge, a recently opened gem on its very own island in the Stockholm archipelago (which, by the way, is made up of more than 24,000 islands). The lodge has just seven wafty, igloo-like tents - with cosy wood burners, reindeer rugs, soft Mille Notti linen and big sea views - hidden among birch and fir-tree forest. Showers are outdoor and blissful, with pinecones at your feet. Young children aren't encouraged, so this is the place for grown-up frolics: drink champagne on the rocks, wander off to a secluded beach or soak in a hot tub right on the edge of the Baltic Sea. Romp around the island grabbing fistfuls of wild blueberries or kayak out to neighbouring shores. And then, at night, climb down into the secret old rock shelter (the island was previously a military base), where you can have dinner alone by flickering candlelight. A little bit surreal, and utterly dreamy.
